To Whom it May Concern,

It is my honor to write a letter of recommendation for Trang Nguyen, a talented and driven student pursuing a Bachelor of Science in Computer Engineering at the University of California, Irvine. As Trang's supervisor at the Engineering Undergraduate Student Affairs Office, I have had the privilege of observing Trang's exceptional skills, strong work ethic, and unwavering dedication to excellence.

As an Engineering Student Success Coach, Trang has gone above and beyond in her commitment to support fellow students. Her collaborative approach and excellent communication skills have fostered a welcoming environment where students feel empowered to navigate their academic journeys. Trang's ability to break down complex concepts into digestible information has been instrumental in guiding students toward success.

Trang's academic and professional accomplishments are equally impressive. Her dedication to Computer Engineering is admirable. I have personally observed Trang grow tremendously as a student and has defeated all odds to prove she can excel in Computer Engineering. Trang's determination and resilience set her apart. She approaches every task with enthusiasm and a willingness to learn, qualities that will undoubtedly serve her well in her future endeavors. Trang's ability to combine technical skills with a collaborative and empathetic approach makes her an invaluable asset to any team.

Trang has become the ideal role model for engineering students, especially women wanting to become engineers. Her passion and determination will make her an engineer who will break barriers and make discoveries to improve our world. I have no doubt Trang will be a remarkable engineer. Her kindness and enthusiasm for engineering will take her far. I cannot express enough excitement about Trang's future achievements.

If you have any questions about Trang's character, please do not hesitate to contact me. I am more than happy to discuss Trang's incredible accomplishments.

Sincerely,

Margaret Anderson
